EXPERT GROUP UNLOCKING $16BN VALUE FOR MĀORI AND THE NATION

Featured in this month's newsletter is a news article regarding the establishment of an technical working group of experts to develop a forestry practice that will be vital to unlocking more than $16 billion in value for the Māori economy. Despite continued attempts to engage in good faith with Ministers and officials, in the end Māori Forestry Landowners decided this issue was too important to be left to bureaucratic process or political whim.

FIELDAYS 2022

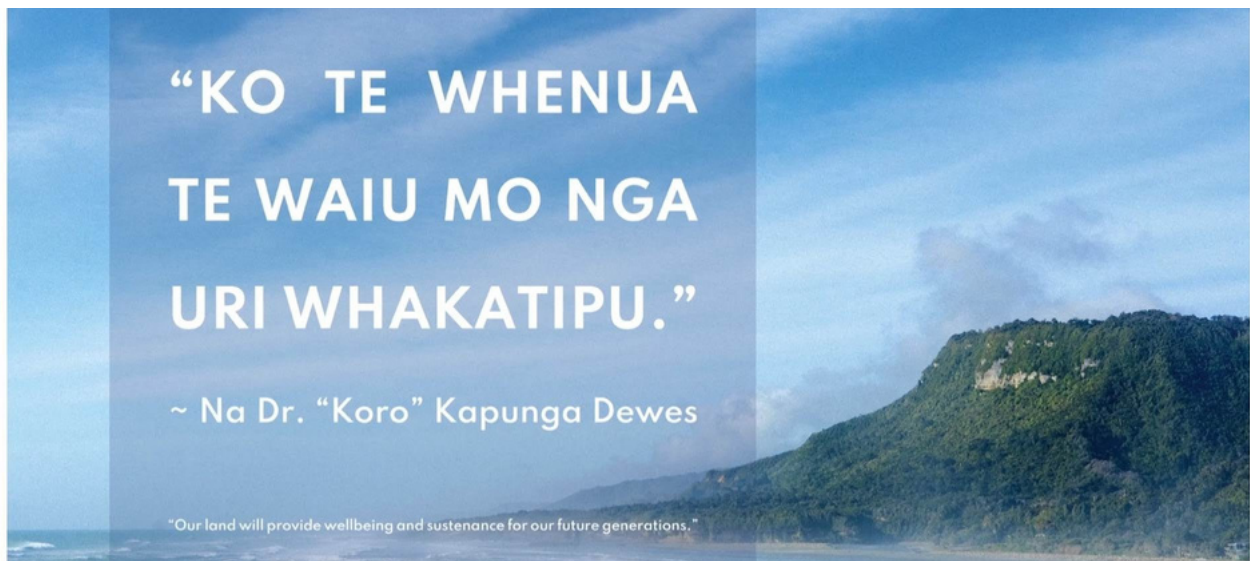

Whenua Oho is grateful to be one of the many fantastic exhibitors at the first ever Forestry Hub at Fieldays 2022. Great to see the standard of exhibitors and the range of services available in the forestry industry.

Prezzy Card Competition.
Whenua Oho is pleased to announce the winner of the $200 Fieldays Prezzy Card draw - George Rolleston of Horohoro.

OUR VISION STATEMENT

He whakaoho i te whenua ki ngā hua o Tāne, kia toitū a Papa, kia whai oranga mō te iwi, mā te iwi me ngā uri whakatipu

TOITŪ TE WHENUA

Te Kapunga Dewes: A Māori Perspective - Why we want native afforestation; and will fight for exotics in the ETS.

A presentation by Whenua Oho CE, Te Kapunga Dewes, at the first ever Ō Tātou Ngahere Conference held At Te Papa Tongarewa in Wellington in October. Click on the link for an in-depth discussion on why Māori prefer native forests and yet will fight to keep exotics in the ETS.

NGA MIHI O TE WA PŌHUTUKAWA KI A TĀTOU

The Whenua Oho team would like to say "thank you" to each and everyone who has supported us in 2022. More importantly, to the Trusts who have engaged our services over the past two years, we are truly grateful for the opportunity to be a part of your journey to develop your whenua and whanau. We wish everyone a very happy Christmas and a joyous New Year. Tō ana te rā ki 2022, nau mai 2023!
